

National Team Announcement

Release Date: 1 October 2023

The Australian Curling Federation is delighted to announce the five National teams from the Australian National Championships held from 6-11 June 2023. The competition was held in Naseby, New Zealand with Team Merchant (Men's), Team Westhagen (Women's) and Team Panoussi successful in securing first place in their respective disciplines. A Junior Men and Junior Women's Team nominated at Nationals and were uncontested. All teams have confirmed they wish to represent Australia and signed Team Commitment and individual Athlete Agreements. The Men and Women will compete at the Pan-Continental Curling Championships A event (end of October), the Mixed Team will compete at the World Mixed Curling Championships (mid-October) and the Junior Men and Junior Women's teams will compete at the World Junior B Curling Championships (December). Congratulations to these teams!!

National Men and Women

National Mixed
(Fours)

National Junior
Women and Junior Men